

2017 Fall Province Report Louisville Province

Fall Greetings,

As I begin my term as Province Director for the Louisville Province, I am humbled by the trust that has been placed in me, but I am also a little overwhelmed by all that is expected.

There is much that the NCCW expects me to do to be a liaison to all of you. I also plan to visit as many of you as possible so that I may represent your concerns and celebrations to NCCW. I will be attending as many of your meetings as possible; however, I would appreciate it if you would forward copies of your diocesan and deanery minutes to me at dinance40@gmail.com. They will help me to know how I may better serve you. I would also like the dates of any events you have scheduled so I may put them on my calendar.

I will be serving on the NCCW Leadership Commission and the Resolutions Committee. Remember that you are all invited to join in on the conference call meetings of the various commissions. As a member of NCCW you will receive an email with the date, time, and call-in information.

On the September 20th conference call, Jean Kelly, NCCW president-elect, gave a very thorough review of the NCCW Convention in Dallas. A recording of that call is posted on the NCCW website, www.nccw.org. Whether you attended the convention or not, you will enjoy the recap. The NCCW conventions are always inspiring, informative, and fun. Make plans now to be in Pittsburg August 29-September 1, 2018.

May Our Lady of Good Counsel guide our hands and hearts to do God's Will. You are in my prayers as I hope I am in yours.

Diann Nance
