

Chattanooga Deanery Council of Catholic Women

To the Knoxville Diocesan Council of Catholic Women Board:

This has been an exciting few months for the Chattanooga Deanery. We hosted the KDCCW 2018 Convention in Chattanooga at St. Stephen parish, and from what participants have said to me it was a great success. I want to thank Arlene Webb, the convention chair, for her guidance and hard work bringing the convention to fruition. I also want to thank all of those wonderful women who volunteered on committees and subcommittees for their time and efforts to make the convention the success that it was.

In July the Deanery hosted a day retreat at the Christ Prince of Peace Center in Benton, TN. The day was to be a laid back, fun, relaxing time to fellowship with one another. It turned out far better than we had ever anticipated.

We will host a Day of Reflection on Saturday, November 10 at St. Therese of Lisieux in Cleveland with Sister Anna Marie McGuan as our speaker. Sister Anna will give two presentations related to Advent, which will be right around the corner.

Plans are in the works for another retreat at the Prince of Peace Center sometime in the late winter. Stay tuned!

We are also very happy to announce that St. Stephen parish is now a CCW affiliate and Arlene Webb is the new president. Congratulations to St. Stephen parish!
