

Maria Morera Johnson

I love speaking on topics that are dear to me, such as the Rosary, making rosaries, and the Saints. Years of high school and catechetical instruction have given me a sensitivity to teens and pre-teens and their use of social media, leading me to speak to youth and parents on internet safety and having a Christian, charitable presence online.

The release of My Badass Book of Saints: Courageous Women Who showed Me How to Live has introduced new possibilities for inspirational and motivational talks, as well as writing workshops, and retreats for women.
