

LEADERSHIP COMMISSION
CMDCCW FALL GENERAL MEETING

29 SEPTEMBER 2020

In the most recent issue of Catholic Woman magazine, the Leadership Commission topic was mentoring: the mentor/mentee relationship that is built on mutual respect and trust. And there is now a Mentee Questionnaire on the NCCW website, always a good place to start.

The September Connect reminded us that October starts this Thursday, and that October is one of the month's when we honor Mary, Patroness of the National Council of Catholic Women. October – on any Sunday you choose – is our time to celebrate ourselves and to tell others who we are and what we do!!

And the June Connect talked about a new initiative that is slowly rolling out from the USCCB (slowed by the pandemic) called Walking With Moms in Need. This program recognizes the many young Moms who are alone in the world, and even more so because of the pandemic. The mission of NCCW is to support, empower, and educate. Supporting new moms aligns with our mission and is what we are called to do. Meal trains, phone calls, and drive-by visits will show you care and are there to help.
